OUR TEAMS

Exodus teams give young people the opportunity for personal and spiritual development as well as the opportunity to serve others.

Teams prepare by meeting weekly to follow one of four courses in a small group. This includes five months of team building, discussion, planning, fundraising and a 2 night residential. In the summer teams take part in a 10-14 day placement with one of our international partners.

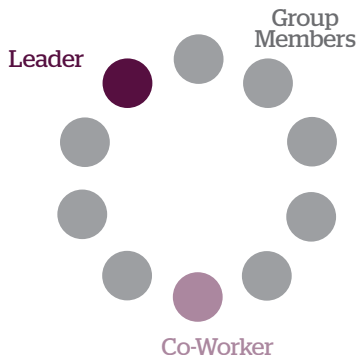

LEADERS & CO-WORKERS

Exodus teams each have a leader and a co-worker. These are generally volunteers although some teams are led by full-time Exodus staff members.

Team Leaders & Co-workers are interviewed and attend 3 training events covering issues around managing a team, fundraising, finance, child protection and good practice on placement.

Leaders receive direct support from the Exodus full-time staff and additional support from a trained mentor.

FINANCE

The cost of team covers preparation costs for training and materials as well as transport, food and accommodation, insurance, support and project costs. It also includes a contribution towards the Exodus staff costs of running the teams.

TEAM FINANCE IS BROKEN DOWN INTO TWO PARTS:

HOW TO PAY

We ask for a 40% deposit in mid February with the final balance to be paid by late April.

Payments & donations can be made on an individual team page through the Exodus website. They are processed by PayPal but only require a credit/debit card not a PayPal account. Payments can also be made by cash/cheque made payable to "Exodus" and given to the team leader.

PARENTS/GUARDIANS

We welcome parental encouragement, practical support and feedback in the team process. We ask parents to keep Exodus informed of any celebrations, concerns or changes to medical or contact details.

Exodus wants to see every young person reach their full potential. We take seriously the responsibilities we have and strive to work alongside parents and guardians to best support the young people involved.

Parents should feel free to talk to leaders or staff at any point but specific opportunities for connection or involvement include:

- Meet Team Leaders informally after the 4th team meeting.
- Information Night in June to give full details of the placement such as transport, accommodation and daily programme.

TEAM MEMBERS

All team members are expected to attend weekly team meetings and fully support the teams fundraising efforts and agree to abide by the Team Lifestyle Agreement which is summarised below:

Whilst at an Exodus event which includes team meetings, the residential, fundraisers, social nights and the summer placement I will:

- Respect those in leadership over me and accept their authority.
- Build positive and inclusive relationships with all team members.
- Endeavour to make a positive contribution to the team and with whom the team has contact.
- Refrain from consuming alcohol and illegal drugs.
- Refrain from attending night clubs.
- Adopt a modest dress code.

Please read the following booking conditions carefully, as they set out the terms and conditions of any contract between you and Exodus Trust ("We, us, and our").

An Exodus Team Placement is our official terminology for an Exodus Team. It exists if you book at the same time a combination of two or more package components which are offered for sale, or sold at, an inclusive price by us. When you buy an Exodus Team Placement, you will receive a confirmation invoice from us confirming your arrangements and in accordance with "The Package Travel, Package Packages and Package Tours Regulations 1992" all passengers booking are fully protected for the initial deposit and subsequently the balance of all monies paid to us, including repatriation if required, arising from cancellation or curtailment of your travel arrangements due to our insolvency.

1. Contract:

The contract is between Exodus Trust, registered charity no. NIC102463, company limited by guarantee no. NI065788 and the Team Member (or the Team Member's Parent or Guardian for under 18s) as shown on the Confirmation & Invoice. Note that the following booking conditions do not affect your statutory rights. No contract will come into force between you and Exodus until Exodus has all the information needed to process your application, has received your Personal Contribution deposit and has confirmed your place in writing.

A booking is made with us when

- a) you complete the online application form
- b) you accept our verbal or written quotation
- c) the deposit for the Personal Contribution is paid

A binding contract will come into existence as soon as we have issued you with a booking confirmation. These booking conditions form the entire agreement between us. The contract will not exist between us until we issue a confirmation invoice even though we may have taken and issued a receipt for payment.

2. Our obligations:

o Receipt

We accept your booking and payment on the basis that you wish to participate in an Exodus Team Placement and that upon giving us this information you are agreeing to purchase the trip under the Terms of this Contract. We may not process your payment for some time or may encounter failure to collect the payment based upon information given, but this does not relieve you of liabilities under this Contract to make payments.

o Confirmation

We reserve your flight seats, car hire and accommodation, etc. We will then issue either by post or email to the Team Member or where appropriate the Team Member's Parent or Guardian, our Confirmation & Invoice which will show the total Personal Contribution required and the due date, if any, by which payment must be received in our office.

o Exodus Team Placement price

The Personal Contribution shown on your Confirmation and Invoice is fixed unless you seek to amend your team arrangements in any way or there are changes to Government imposed taxes or charges prior to completion of your team. The prices shown on our website may change at anytime.

o Changes to your Exodus Team Placement

Occasionally the travel dates of the Exodus Team Placement published online or in the brochure may change by up to 3 days in response to circumstances beyond the control of Exodus. Team Members are strongly advised to keep the days before and after the published dates free.

We are unable to make any payment if changes are made as a result of force majeure. This includes but is not limited to acts of God, acts of threat of war; government action, strike, civil unrest, fire, failure of public utilities, medical emergency, natural, including weather threat or disaster, nuclear threat or disaster, terrorist threat or action, or airport closure. Force majeure also includes any recommendation by the foreign & commonwealth office travel advice unit. You are advised to check this information on the internet at www.fc.co.uk.

o Cancellation by us

Exodus Trust reserves the right to cancel or change the publicised Exodus Team Placement in any circumstances. If this happens Exodus Trust will endeavour to organise a new placement. If this is not possible then full refunds on receipted Personal Contributions will be made to those who made the payments.

o Our liabilities to you

Exodus accepts liability for acts and/or omissions of our employees, agents and suppliers while acting in the course of their employment with us. We accept responsibility for deficiencies in the service we are contracted to supply except in the case of force majeure as defined above. Our liability will be limited to twice the cost of the team. We are not responsible for the death, injury or illness of anyone who booked with us unless when caused by negligent acts or omissions by employees or agents acting within the course of employment with us. We will, however, offer assistance to anyone booked with us who suffers injury or illness arising from activities outside the scope of their team arrangements. This will be limited to £5000 per booking and in the event that a successful claim is made against any insurance, will be recoverable to you.

3. Your obligations:

o Application

Application forms must be fully completed by the Team Member before being accepted for a team.

For summer placements:

- a. Leadership applications should be completed where possible by the final Friday of November.

BOOKING CONDITIONS

b. Team Member Applications should be completed by the final Wednesday in January of the year of travel. Team Members submitting applications after this date may experience availability problems.

c. Applications to teams will be closed at the discretion of the Exodus Leadership.

Please note that a completed application form does not guarantee a place on a first team of preference.

However, we will endeavour to place people in an appropriate team. If any of the information given on the application form is found not to be correct or is incomplete, then the Team Member can be asked to leave the team.

o Contract

Your place on the Exodus Team Placement is confirmed when we issue your Confirmation & Invoice by email or post. Please advise us if you have not received this within 14 days of team meetings starting. On the receipt of your Confirmation & Invoice, PLEASE CHECK it carefully, particularly with regard to spelling of names which must agree with that in your passport, as any errors may incur administrative charges.

o Team Lifestyle Agreement

All team members are expected to attend weekly team meetings and fully support the team's fundraising efforts. We ask all team members including leaders and co-workers to agree to abide by the Team Lifestyle Agreement which is summarised below:

o The average fundraising per person is £350 for European destinations and £450 for others.

o Team members must not use team fundraising events to raise money towards their Personal Contribution.

o Amendments to your team arrangements

We will consider any requests from the Team Member and or the Team Member's Parent to change your team arrangements and will use our best efforts to assist you. We may need to make a charge for this and will advise you prior to accepting your instructions. In some circumstances, it may be necessary to treat the change as cancellation. We can only accept changes that are notified in writing by email, by fax or by post.

o Cancellation by you

If there are any changes in the medical circumstances of the Team Member throughout the programme the Team Member or the Team Member's Parent or Guardian must inform Exodus without delay. If a team member falls sick or is injured prior to departure and cannot travel then, if possible, Exodus will claim back what was paid on travel expenses from the Insurance Policy. This may not cover the full amount of the Personal Contribution. Exodus holds the right to retain the administrative fee, insurance and material costs. The individual will then receive what is left to the value to which has been contributed toward the team at that moment in time.

o Changes to your team arrangements after departure

If you decide to change your arrangements whilst overseas you will be breaking this contract. All remaining accommodation will automatically be cancelled and we shall be unable to accept any liability for any loss, damage or other claim resulting from your placement.

15. Exodus Team Placement information

We have done everything possible to ensure that the information we have given you on our website including that about events is correct and up to date. We update our website frequently to reflect those changes that we know about but we do not have control over them. Consequently, should events not take place, we can accept no liability and the placement arrangements confirmed will stand. Please note, also, that we have no control over the websites with which we link. Advertised facilities on these and our own websites do change and we can accept no responsibility for these changes.

16. Overbooking

It's a common fact of modern travel that hotels and airlines seek to maximise their occupancy by taking more bookings than there is space available in order to compensate for no-shows. We monitor our suppliers very closely to avoid potential disruption to your placement. Consequently, if we feel there is a chance you may be inconvenienced, we will contact you as soon as we are aware of the possibility and propose alternative arrangements.

17. General information

a) Joint services:

Please note that two airlines may share the same services, therefore a flight may not be operated by the airline whose designated code is shown on your itinerary and ticket.

b) Taxes:

Your Personal Contribution includes all mandatory taxes including any departure taxes which have to be paid locally.

c) Tipping:

Your arrangement does not include tips. However in some parts of the world, tipping is a major part of employees income and we give guidance as to the level expected. Please do follow this advice for the benefit of future travels.
